In-text Citations

Use in-text citations (parenthetical references) to document your use of material from another source. Place the citation in parentheses after the quote. DOUBLE SPACE everything

Patterns for In-text Citations	Sample In-text Citations
Single Author (Author page #).	“The 1897 Colorado blizzard was the most devastating on record” (Bolling 2).
Two Authors (1 st author and 2nd author page #).	“Cinematic prisms transmogrify individual existences” (Uhlman and Bergman 347).
Three Authors (1 st author, 2 nd author, and 3 rd author page #).	“These social facts find a new view of Mexico and its people” (Poll, Pit, and Diaz 22-23).
More than Three Authors (Author et al. page #).	“The quadratic equation symbolizes proximity to the divine” (Spencer et al. 354).
No Author – Listed by Title (Shortened Title for Book page #).	“Initial documentation was formulated by Kate Turabian” (Chicago Manual 3).
Article with Only One Page (Author. If no author, give “Shortened Title for Article”). Eliminate page number.	“The spine first bends through disc stress” (“Spinal Stenosis”).
Internet Document w/ Fixed Page Numbers (Author. If no author, give Shortened Title page #). Since pagination may differ from printer to printer, page numbers of printouts should not be cited.	“Lays and Fresca provide only 10% of the company’s profits” (Gallagher 2).
Internet Document with no Fixed Pages or Section Numbers Eliminate Page #(s) from In-text Citation (Author. If no author, give Shortened Title).	“Steinbeck proposed that the American political structure demonized the common man” (Stephan).
Rule: Excluding Author from Citation: When using the author’s name in a sentence, give only the page number(s) in the citation.	Bolling states, “These social facts support a new view of relationships between local friends, ones across-the-miles” (2).
Rule: Long Quotation: Do not place quotation marks around a quote that is longer than four lines. Instead, indent the entire quote ten spaces.	Music from Mexico is varied, with a complex structural background. Pointing out that the corrido cannot be reduced to its major prototypes, Martinez argues for its origin in the poetry of the indigenous cultures of Mexico. (Poll, Pit, and Diaz 350-51)
Rule: Paraphrasing: Use the same rules for documenting paraphrases as the ones for documenting in-text citations. Do not enclose a paraphrase with quotation marks.	Bolling indicates that distance forges even stronger relationships, but only for those friends whose connections are durable and genuine (3-5).
